Carol Davis Chili Supper Benefit this Saturday

The Germantown Community is hosting a chili supper and auction to benefit Carol Davis. Carol has been diagnosed with breast cancer and the benefit is to help with some of her expenses. She is the secretary/treasurer of the Bridesider Homemakers and Germantown Christian Church and the treasurer of the Bracken Co. Homemakers and Bracken Co. Extension Board.

The chili supper will be from 5-7 p.m this Saturday, December 1st, at the Germantown Fire Hall with the auction beginning at 7 p.m. T-Shirts in support of Carol will be available for sale the night of the event or may be pre-ordered. Anyone with donations or questions can call Donna Arthur (606) 217-3131 or Carrie Jefferson (606) 375-2010.

Augusta Art Guild Hosts Holiday Fundraiser, Dec. 7

The Augusta Art Guild is very excited to present its “Symbols of the Season” Holiday Art Gala on Friday, December 7th at the Clooney Community Center. This very special event, which occurs only once every two years, features a Live Auction, Mystery Boxes, and One-of-a-Kind ornaments created by Guild artists. Additionally, the gala will include a delicious dinner provided by Russell Catering and “donation only” bar. All proceeds from this fundraiser help support the community programs and projects of the Augusta Art Guild.

Tickets are $40 per person and limited in number so reservations must be made in advance. If interested in attending this event, please contact Leah Frederick, AAG President at 513-289-9800 or leah@leahfrederick.com.

More information can also be found at www.AugustaArtGuild.com.

Saturday's 'Light Up Brooksville' Festivities

Brooksville will be all hustle and bustle this Saturday, December 1st, with the many events planned throughout the day. Starting the day off on the right foot will be Breakfast at the Brooksville Christian Church from 8 - 10 a.m.

Next the Hometown Traditions Community Club will entice children of all ages with a stroll down Santa Claus Lane at the Watson Community Building from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and then again after the parade, so bring your cameras.

The pageants have been CANCELLED.

Grand Marshals E.B. and Mary Kathryn Kern will be honored with a reception from 2 - 3 p.m. in the courthouse lobby.

Soup and sandwiches can be enjoyed from 2 - 4 p.m. at the Brooksville Baptist Church to help ease the chill from the blustery day to come.

Participants in the parade will begin lining up at Taylor Elementary at 3:30 p.m. with the parade beginning at 4:30 p.m.

The Brooksville Baptist Church will again come alive with the sounds of voices blended in harmony at 5:30 p.m. as a Singspiration draws a close to the busy fun-filled day.

While enjoying the activities of the day, be sure to visit our local merchants for your Christmas gift needs.

Santa Claus Lane will close for the year this Saturday, Dec. 1st after the parade. A schedule of events can be found on page 16.

Deputy Scott honored for 20 years of D.A.R.E. service

Bracken County Sheriff's Deputy Robert “Bob” Scott was honored for his 20 years of providing the D.A.R.E. Program to Bracken County Schools.

D.A.R.E., which stands for Drug Abuse Resistance Education, is a 10-week course that is presented to fifth grade students by local law enforcement officers to educate them on the negative effects of drug abuse. Each student was given a t-shirt and a certificate for their successful completion of the program at D.A.R.E. graduation held Tues., Nov. 13.

Santa Claus Lane incorporates memories from the past this year

The Hometown Traditions Community Club and the City of Brooksville have again created a wonderland for children of all ages as the Watson Community Building has been transformed into Santa Claus Lane once again. This year attendees will stroll down the streets of Santa Claus Lane and see the different types of village shops. The traditional Reindeer Barn has been replaced by an Old Mill, but fear not, the reindeer are corralled behind the mill. Reindeer food can still be made and sprinkled outside to entice Santa's reindeer to stop at each child's house in Bracken County. New this year is a Polar Plunge. Elves can be seen diving into and playing around it. Brrrrrr! Close to the post office above, is the newspaper office. Finally, attendees make their way to Mrs. Claus' Kitchen, where the Storybook Nursery has taken over! The anticipation then builds as children enter Santa's Toy Shop for a quick visit to remind Santa of each child's Christmas wish list and a photo opportunity.

Reminiscent of Christmas' past, the Hometown Traditions Community Club has placed a refurbished post master from Santaland, the predecessor of Santa Claus Lane, in the village post office they have appropriately named the Countryside Post Office. Countryside Homemakers began Santaland back in the early 1970's for the same purpose as Santa Claus Lane, to give children, both young and old, the opportunity to see Santa Claus and give him their Christmas Wish List in person, and to enjoy the giving spirit of Christmas. Ironically, the children of the Countryside Homemakers have grown up to become involved not only in the planning and execution of Santa Claus Lane, but to bring their own children to enjoy the enchantment of Christmas as they stroll down memory lane. Those original Countryside Homemakers even enjoy the sparkle of awe and amazement they see in their grandchildren and great-grandchildren's eyes as they walk through each year and see how their vision of long ago shines through the efforts of their children and others they awed with Santaland.

Santa Claus Lane is located at the Watson Community Building in Brooksville and is open Saturday, December 1st from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and then again after the parade, so don't forget your camera!

“Walk Through Bethlehem” December 1 & 2

As a gift to our community, God's family at Oakland (in Pendleton County) is presenting for their fifth year a “Walk through Bethlehem.” Come and see the shops, the sounds and sights, the guards, the hustle and bustle of Bethlehem as it might have been at the time of Jesus' birth. Meet Mary and Joseph and the babe at the stable. See the royally robed Magi as they journey to find the baby. Your outdoor journey ends at the tomb where you'll meet Nicodemus and an angel as they proclaim the “reason for the season.”

Come and see the true meaning of Christmas. Before your tour you will hear special singers inside the church. This is indeed a very special free event for all ages. Remember to dress warmly. Tours will be held 6-8:30 p.m. each evening. Refreshments are served. For more info or directions, just call 859-654-6174 or 859-797-3719.

“Cool Deals” Search off to a good start

This is the second week for the “Cool Deals” Search Merchants' give-a-way. Remember a different word search puzzle will be featured each week through Dec. 13th. To enter, drop off or mail your weekly completed word search form(s) anytime before Mon., Dec. 17th at Noon to The Bracken County News, PO Box 68, Brooksville, KY 41004. Three lucky winners will be chosen. See merchant's page on page 15.

How's the hunt going for Santa's “missing cups of hot chocolate”?

Readers were very busy last week searching the pages of The Bracken County News for Santa's “missing cups of hot chocolate”. If you were diligent in your looking then you found 3 of the 12 missing cups. Keep searching you never know where the other 9 will show up!

Remember you can win by searching the ads, headlines, and pictures to find out where the “missing cups of hot chocolate”, as shown below, are hidden. They will be in three locations, in the Nov. 22nd thru the Dec. 13th issues of The Bracken County News.

To enter, simply fill out the locations of each cup with page number on the entry form included in each issue. After finding all twelve (12) cups and completing your form(s), mail or drop off your form(s) to the office by Monday, December 17th at noon. Only forms that contain all twelve (12) locations are eligible to win. The winner will be notified by telephone.

Officials hold ribbon cutting ceremony for the early completion of the KY 22 Bridge Replacement Project in Falmouth, Kentucky
$6 million project replaces obsolete 84 year old truss bridge

The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet, together with federal, state and local officials and numerous local residents, ceremonially opened a new KY 22 Bridge over the Licking River at Falmouth on Fri., Nov. 16.

“I want to commend all of those working on this project and having it completed in one year’s time,” said Rob Hans, chief district engineer for the Kentucky Department of Highways District 6, at Covington. “The new structure we’re celebrating today may be of particular interest to residents of Falmouth and Pendleton County but will also benefit out-of-town travelers visiting the many exciting areas that Pendleton County has to offer.”

The new structure is a concrete deck on steel girders. More than 1.4 million pounds of structural steel was used in its construction. The bridge has four spans and with approaches will be 730 feet long. The new span has a sidewalk that continues to a boat ramp entrance.

The new bridge crosses the Licking River next to the venerable span it replaces – the Shomakertown Bridge, also called the Old Blue Bridge. The Design, Right of Way and Utilities costs for the project totaled $1,828,000.00. The project was let for construction in September 2011 and Hall Contracting of Kentucky, Inc., of Louisville, was awarded the low-bid contract of $6 million.

State Sen. Katie Stine,

of Southgate, said the new bridge has been long-awaited by area residents.

“After a year of construction, this new bridge will allow families in our area to travel over the Licking River in a safer and more efficient manner. This kind of road project is exactly what we need to ensure safety and economic development in Pendleton County,” Sen. Stine said.

State Rep. Tom McKee, of Cynthiana, said: “The new bridge is a welcome improvement to the transportation system in Pendleton County, and will serve over half of its citizens. This bridge will provide a safe way of crossing the Licking River for many generations. I am happy to have supported it and help see to its completion.”

Pendleton County Judge-Executive Henry Bertram said, “the Old Blue Bridge was a deterrent to development. “The new bridge will not only open up development, but will establish a much safer means of travel for our citizens,” Judge Bertram said.

Falmouth Mayor Mark Hart expressed personal satisfaction in completion of the project. “It is very rewarding to be standing here today, seeing the completion of the new KY 22 Bridge. The Kentucky Department of Transportation needs to be commended on a job well done,” Mayor Hart said. “Just several months ago our community was faced with the closing of the current KY 22 bridge because of safety concerns. The Transportation Cabinet stepped up and provided immediate assistance to us by shoring up and securing the old bridge for use, while continuing construction of the new bridge. They also doubled their efforts and finished the new KY 22 Bridge eight and a half months ahead of schedule.”

The old steel truss and deck will be removed from the Shomakertown Bridge at a later date.

WHAT GRACE IS by Pastor Cornelius R. Stam

Never let the devil deceive you into supposing that God planned sin as “a gracious means to a glorious end,” for then salvation from sin would be simple justice, not grace. No, you cannot legitimately charge God with your sin. It is to the guilty, the undeserving, far and wide, that God offers “the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace” (Eph. 1:7).

There are two significant phrases in Eph. 2 which shed clear light upon the character, the nature, of grace. They are found in Verses 2 and 3, which speak of the unsaved as “children [Gr., huiois, full-grown sons] of disobedience” and “children [Gr., tekna, born ones] of wrath.”

Meditate for a moment on these phrases: “Children of disobedience” and “children of wrath.” It is against this dark, black background of deserved wrath, that we read further:

“BUT GOD, who is RICH IN MERCY, for His GREAT LOVE wherewith He loved us,

“Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us [given us life] together with Christ (BY GRACE ARE YE SAVED),

“And hath raised us up together and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

“That in the ages to come He might show THE EXCEEDING RICHES OF HIS GRACE IN HIS KINDNESS TOWARD US THROUGH CHRIST JESUS” (Eph. 2:4-7).

Somehow it takes a load off one’s heart and mind to come to the end of his rope, as it were, and admit that he is a sinner, deserving God’s wrath. How sweet to the ears of such is the wonderful message of redemption by grace, through the finished work of Christ at Calvary. We were all the “children [full-grown sons] of disobedience”: and therefore “by nature the children [born ones] of wrath”: “But God!” When hope seemed gone, He intervened and now offers salvation to all by grace, through faith.

“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved” (Acts 16:31).

On this Sun., Nov. 25, we had 61 to SS and 109 to worship service. All are welcome to God's House of worship and praise.

We are so blessed with all our musicians. Hope Florer was at the organ and Angie McKinney at the piano. JoAnn Brown played during Communion service "I Asked The Lord". She has such a gentle and beautiful touch on the piano. Jane Nelson played "Count Your Blessings" and for Bobby Shepherd "Mansion Over The Hilltop".

Bro. Jackie asked if anyone had a praise report. Angie McKinney said she was thankful that she made it through another Thanksgiving with her brother-in-law...none other than Bro. Jackie!

Remember in prayer: Tom Adams (heart by-pass surgery & now had a stroke), Charles Applegate (Harvey Applegate's brother) has a spot on his kidney and 2 in his lungs...at this time has chosen not to have radiation, Lisa Lucas (blood pressure), Connie Biddle (some improvement), Wayne Brockley (below knee amputation, is improving), Martha Lynn (total knee replacement this Tuesday), Nancy Tompkins (stress test this week & surgery Nov. 30), Gene Tompkins will be having an MRI on his head due to severe pain, Gail Ann Jennings (had surgery, is back in the hosp. and had emergency surgery), John Cooper (weakness), Phil Hedges (pneumonia), Betty Henderson (arthritis), Linda Myers (back injections), Odell Hopkins, Orie Thomas, Carol Davis, Shawna McKenney, Ruby Highfield, Amber Hamilton, Ruby Silvey, Susie Fathergill, Larry Evans (infection in leg), Johnny Fryman (ICU in Lexington), and all those on the prayer list and always each other.

Sympathy goes out to the Blanche Cox and Bert Galloway families during the passing of their loved ones. Blanche was a dear friend, a kind and gentle, loving person. We all loved her at Chatham and she will forever be in our thoughts.

Bro. Jackie's message was "Marks of a Christian... Thinking of Others". Acts 11:27-30. We need to think of others by sharing, by praying, and by reaching out to them.

Wed., Nov. 28 - Choir practice & play practice 7 p.m.

Sun., Dec. 2 - Services at Bracken Center 3 p.m.

Sun., Dec. 2 - Adult Bible Study and Youth Bible Study 6 p.m.

Remember the food bank, backpack program, sunshine baskets, and toy drive ... new or slightly used (toys need to be here by Dec. 9).

Appreciation to members of Oakland Christian Church for all the hard work they did on "Walk Through Bethlehem". A must see! May God bless you as you tell the story of Jesus and His birth. He is the reason for the season.

OAKLAND CHRISTIAN by Barbara Browning

Blessings abound as we observe people who visit our "Walk Through Bethlehem". The city is alive with the shops and the people. It is a joy to present this "gift" to the community. One more weekend, December 1 and 2, 6-8:30 p.m. will find the city open for visitors. "Come and See."

Bro. Jim's message reminded us that many people are lonely in this world, and especially at this time of the year. All people need Jesus who helps with that loneliness. Come be a part of a church family. That helps.

Choir practice this Wednesday and Thursday nights, 7 p.m., for our Christmas cantata that is presented December 23 morning. Our choir will be singing at 3 p.m. December 1, on Shelby Street, at the Falmouth Christmas Parade.

Church Board meeting is December 4.

Oakland Christian Workers meet at Connie Bowling's at 2 p.m. on December 5. Ladies are always welcome.

Our prayer concerns include Zelma King, Bobby Johnson, Juanita King (Robertson Co. Health Care), Mildred Jefferson, Carol Polley, Denny Ortleib, Angie Hemphill, Judy Monson, John McAlonan, shut-ins, armed forces, cancer issues, and our leaders. Our sympathy to the loved ones of Blanche Cox and Neva Cobb.

GREETINGS FROM ST. JAMES by Caroline Jefferson

It is hard to believe, but Sunday, December 2 is the first Sunday of Advent, four weeks set aside for us to prepare spiritually for the coming of the Christ Child on Christmas. An excellent way to begin this season of hope and anticipation is to participate in the Penance Services available to all parishioners. On Monday, Dec. 3 at 7 p.m. there will be a Penance Service at St. Patrick's Church with four priests available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Fr. Kevin Kahmann will be at St. James on Wednesday, Dec. 5 at 7 p.m. for confessions and again at St. Augustine's on Thursday at 7 p.m. Let this Advent be spent in prayer, almsgiving and sacrifice so that our gift of self to the Christ Child this Christmas Day will be the best it can be!

Saturday, December 8, is the Feast of the Immaculate Conception and a holyday of obligation. The Vigil Mass will be celebrated by Fr. Greg at St. James on Friday, December 7 at 7 p.m. and at 8 a.m. on Saturday morning at St. Augustine. As we commemorate these two historical dates in American history, let us continue to pray for peace at home and abroad! May God bless the United States through the intercession of Mary!

With Heartfelt Humble Thanks!

We extend heartfelt THANK YOU's to our wonderful community for your prayerful support, contributions and participation in the 2012 Augusta Carry-out Thanksgiving Meal on Wednesday evening, November 14th. We were able to deliver and bring God's love and encouragement to around 250. Many people opened their hearts and pocketbooks to make the day possible. People from the churches in the area worked together to provided turkeys and pumpkin pies. Many individuals gave of their time and talents to make sure we accomplished our goal of reaching out to our community in loving compassion. To ALL of you ... THANK YOU! May the love of our God be always present to you as we approach the holidays!

The Word of God leaves us with an amazing command ... "GO into all the world and preach the Gospel of His love". Whether we use our voices or our hands, it is important that we are willing and that we make the effort. Again, thank you to everyone who was there and was willing to GO! Until our next opportunity to serve in Jesus' Name ...

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF AUGUSTA by Rita Bradford

Hello & God's Blessings from The First Baptist Church of Augusta. Brother Tony's sermon was titled "Jesus Paid It All". When Jesus willingly went to the cross He cleared the road to God the Father for each & everyone of us. No toll fee is required, all we have to do is humble ourselves & accept the greatest gift of love ever given.

Do you feel like you're going down a dead end road? We invite you to come & join us as we journey down the road that Jesus made for us together. Our services begin on Wed. night @ 7 p.m. with our Prayer Meeting. Our Sunday Services start with Sunday School @ 9:30 a.m. This week's lesson is titled "Yahweh Our God." This lesson will help you understand that even with the worldly view of many different gods there is only one true God, Yahweh. Our Sunday Morning Worship begins @ 10:30 a.m. Sunday evening services begin @ 6 p.m. Brother Tony continues in the book of Revelation preparing us for the end times. May we all heed the signs that God is giving us. The end is near. Don't get caught going in the wrong direction! For more information call Brother Tony 606-747-5374.

PRESBYTERIAN POTPOURRI by Les Grooms, pastor Augusta Presbyterian

Roger Cheesbro and his wife Sherry visited with us again, as Kay and I were on an anniversary holiday in Tennessee. He is always such a blessing bringing God's message in song and message.

Worshippers attendance was down on Sunday due to sickness and those celebrating the Thanksgiving weekend. Earl Bush was the liturgist, Barbara Nickoson led the singing, and Jillian White did the powerpoint.

Word was given that we received our part in the participation of Annie's Angel's that is in remembrance of Annie Bach who was a lifelong member of our church.

The ladies of the church will be hosting a Craft Fair this Saturday. There will be a luncheon served of bean soup and chili, homemade pimiento cheese and finger desserts. The public is invited to come in for lunch, as well.

I want to remind you that our church will be hosting a Special Christmas Dinner on Christmas Day hoping that those who are alone will feel welcomed to join us as we celebrate this most holy Christmas Day. Jesus was always reaching out to those who were struggling with aloneness and grief. We want to find ourselves following His outreach and extend a hand of love and encouragement to those in our area to help them through times of aloneness and need. We will be serving a hot Christmas Dinner from 11-2 on Christmas Day. Let us know if you would want to join us.

Zion-Jacobs announce upcoming marriage

Desiring God's will in our lives and believing that includes each other, Paul Jacobs and Georgia Zion announces their upcoming marriage on Saturday, December 1, 2012 at 1 p.m. at the Pump Springs Baptist Church in Harrogate, TN.

Paul is the son of Pauline Jacobs and the late Clyde N. Jacobs. Their families invite you to join them on this special day and in asking God's blessing upon this union.

Behymer-Chumbley vows exchanged

Ms. Lesleigh Renee Behymer, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. John Behymer of Burlington, KY wed Mr. Michael Todd Chumbley, son of Mr. & Mrs. Jim Chumbley of Blue Ash, OH in a garden, double-ring ceremony on Saturday, June 2, 2012.

The wedding ceremony took place at French Park in Amberley Village, with Mr. William Proud as the celebrant. Ms. Sarah Good, aunt of the bride, read the scripture reading. Jason Ourbin, cousin of the groom, read the prayers of petitions. Presiding as a greeter and program attendant was Ms. Megan Good, cousin of the bride.

Ms. Alison Cadle, of Cincinnati, OH, friend of the bride served as Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Kaitlin Gudger of Suffolk, Va., friend of the bride, Emily Chumbley of Cincinnati, OH, sister of the groom, Lisa Chumbley of Cincinnati, OH, sister of the groom, Andrea Rehkamp of Florence, KY, friend of the bride and Dr. Andrea Bischoff of Waynesville, OH, sister-in-law of the bride. The bridal attendants wore short satin dresses in medium gray accented with a sash tied to the side. They carried antique green and plum hydrangeas wrapped at the stems with grey satin.

Mr. Chris Chumbley of West Chester, OH and brother of the groom, served as best man. The groomsmen were: Mr. Jeremy Durbin, cousin of the groom, Jon Parnell, friend of the groom, Mr. Chris Dunaway, friend of the groom, all of Cincinnati, OH, Mr. Ryan Daily of Powell, OH, cousin of the groom and Kyle Behymer of Waynesville, OH, brother of the bride. Each wore medium gray pants, white shirts, gray vests and plum paisley ties. The groom wore the same but he wore a tie in white paisley.

The bride was escorted to the gazebo by her father, Mr. John Behymer. She chose a luxurious lace and soft satin floor length white gown with a chapel train. The v-shaped neckline had scalloped lace edging and a crystal encrusted satin band highlighting her empire waistline. She accented her gown with a Swarovski crystal belt. The bride selected a traditional style veil of white tulle with lace edging to her waist. She carried a beautiful bouquet of antique green and plum hydrangeas with ivory stephanotis wrapped at the stems in antique ivory lace with pearl pins. For her "something old", she chose an antique green and gold brooch that was her great grandmother's, Mrs. Gladys Bach.

After the ceremony, hors d'oeuvres were served in the French House and a formal reception was held on the grounds of The French Park under an expansive white tent. Entertaining highlights of the reception included a flash mob by the wedding party, groom's cake presentation and the "Chumbley" tradition of dancing and serenading the bride with "Let Me Call You Sweetheart". A three tiered wedding cake of white cake with strawberry filling, chocolate cake with chocolate fudge filling and chocolate with peanut butter filing was served. Wedding favors of wine charms were given to all guests.

On the eve of the wedding, the groom's family hosted a lovely rehearsal dinner at the authentic Italian restaurant, Bella Luna in Cincinnati, OH.

After their honeymoon to St. Lucia, the new couple is residing in Cincinnati, OH.

45th Annual Frontier Christmas, December 1st and 2nd

One of Kentucky's oldest festivals where tradition is expected in an American village that dates back 226 years. It has become a tradition in many families, dating back to their parents and grandparents, to get in the holiday spirit by attending Frontier Christmas, always held the first weekend in December in Washington, Kentucky, a village that celebrates Christmas to the fullest and has endured the test of time (now part of Maysville). The Historic Washington Shopkeepers are inviting the public to browse and shop during the annual Frontier Christmas sponsored by Old Washington, Inc. on Saturday, December 1st and Sunday, December 2nd from 10-6 Saturday and 11-5 Sunday. 8 museums and many of the homes will already be decked out in Pioneer style greenery, candle-lit windows, pine-scented rooms and holly-decked mantles. Step back into the 18th Century as you tread the flagstone walks of our pioneer forefathers, as many of your ancestors have done for the past 45 years and enjoy this 1700's village for a day or the weekend. Many new Christmas festivals have started in the past 45 years, several have not continued. Frontier Christmas remains a tradition with candle dipping in Mefford's Fort C. 1797 log cabin, hot cider in the Albert Sidney Johnston C. 1797 Museum, Washington's own silversmith at work in the Bluegrass Artisan Center located in a 2-story pre-1790 log cabin, previously the Cane Brake Visitor's Center with 7 other artist's works. 1790's Goforth House with Free Santa Photo Shoot, Photography and Exhibit on Saturday and Free Print your Christmas Card on Sunday.

Celebrate an Old Fashion Christmas with, crafts and demonstrations. Many professional groups with traditional Christmas renditions will provide the musical entertainment in the 1848 Old Church Museum both days. Food is a real treat, especially creme candy and transparent tarts, (a Mason County delicacy), Christmas Puddings, Fudge Bourbon Balls and other goodies found throughout the village. The Limestone Chapter DAR and CAR will be serving soup, sandwiches and baked goods in pre-1810 Paxton Inn with sit-down dining. There will be Vesper Service Sunday at 4:00 in the Old Church Museum. Click on www.washingtonky.com the Washington website - look under Events for the full schedule with times and updates.

Numerous Historic buildings feature antiques, and handmade specialties to put one in the spirit for great holiday shopping. Old Main Street's shops offer an array of Primitives to Victorian antiques, antique Bluebird & Autumn Leaf china, crafts, Fiesta ware, custom pottery of local towns and covered bridges in KY, jewelry, Michael Kors jewelry and purses, cut glass, silver, prints, framed art, frame shops, an antique lamp shop, and a Dollhouse shop. Collectibles include Cat's Meow, Mary Hadley and Bybee pottery, Fenton Glass, paperweights, paper doll books. Some shops feature Christmas Corners all year and some will have specials, drawings for prizes, give coupons, and put candy in each bag.

There are several regular tours of the museums and village conducted by costumed guides including, The Harriett Beecher Stowe Museum and Paxton Inn are on the Underground Railroad tours and the Full Historical Tour. The Log Cabin Learning Tour is a very popular field trip for many schools and once each year is Pioneer Day where schools bring a whole class. Call 606-759-7411.

Washington, (now part of Maysville), is located 4 miles from the banks of the Ohio River, 50 miles north-east of Lexington, KY, 50 miles west of Portsmouth, Ohio, and 48 miles east of Cincinnati, OH, (take the Wilder Exit #77 off I-275 onto Route #9- also known as the AA Highway), turn right at the light by Wendy's onto US 68, turn left at the third light up into Old Washington. Washington is one mile south of the AA Hwy. on old US 68. For more information call the Visitor's Center - 606-759-7411. Web Site: www.washingtonky.com

Howdy Folks! Thanksgiving Day 2012 is just a memory, but what a beautiful day for family and friends to gather and give thanks for the many blessings received! Everyone has troubles, and life is not always easy, but a wise person once said to ‘look around and you will always find someone who is worse off than you’. We have found over the years that indeed that statement is true and we hope that everyone is able to find the blessings in your daily lives! Oakland Christian Church is presenting the last weekend of their “Walk Through Bethlehem” this Saturday and Sunday evenings from 6 until 8:30 p.m. and it reminds us that of all our blessings, the gift of the Infant Jesus is the best blessing of all!

Due to Thanksgiving, the Recycling Center was closed on Thursday and Friday and on this beautiful Monday morning, we are playing ‘catch-up’ with the recycling trailers and the roll-off dumpsters. As of Friday, the recycling trailer behind the Brooksville Fire Department was full, but that did not deter everyone from leaving their bags and boxes around it. A caller informed us that the doors were open and papers were blowing from the bags left around that trailer. Upon arrival we picked up the blowing recycling and secured the doors. And guess what? When we hooked to that trailer this morning, there were more bags and cardboard! We love recycling, we truly appreciate the recycling efforts and we are most happy that it was not raining because everything outside the trailer would have been lost! Please know that we understand your frustrations when a trailer is too full for your material, but we do our utmost to keep the trailers emptied and appreciate everyone’s cooperation during holidays. From now until the second week in January, we will be working extra hard to keep up with the demands, so if your favorite trailer is full, give us a call! A very important footnote to full trailers is to remind everyone to flatten the boxes which allows more space for recycling material!

This lovely weather has presented an excellent opportunity to use a portion of the grant funding obtained by Donna Rath to put a few roll-off dumpsters in the county for folks to do some fall cleaning. Planning around holidays is difficult and unfortunately, there are problems with the phones at the Maysville Mason County Landfill Office this morning, but we are trying to get roll-offs removed that are full and new ones re-positioned at Germantown, Augusta East on Route 8, Berlin and Old 19 Hill outside of Brooksville. Hopefully, by the time you read this, all will be well, but again, we ask for your patience and understanding. Your part is to fill the dumpsters properly, but there is much coordination of many folks working behind the scenes just to get the roll-offs located in order for you to fill your truck and empty the trash into the dumpster. With cooperation all around, we will get through this together!

Kentuckians are doing a great job recycling as is evidenced in the nearly one million tires that were recycled through the tire amnesties over the last three years. While the number of tires recycled during these amnesties are declining, it is proof that the amnesties are working. Keeping tires and other usable materials out of landfills makes us good stewards of Mother Earth and every world citizen should strive to RECYCLE, REUSE and REDUCE to keep God’s earth clean, green and beautiful! Be seen’ you – Bin & Bug.

For shoppers interested in extra savings on major appliances on Black Friday and beyond, be sure to look for a star – an ENERGY STAR® that is.

Kentucky Utilities and Louisville Gas and Electric offer rebates ranging from $50 to $300 to help residential customers offset the purchasing costs of certain ENERGY STAR certified refrigerators, clothes washers, dishwashers, freezers and heat pump water heaters.

Since the Home Energy Rebate Program’s official launch in May 2012, nearly 9,000 rebates have been paid to customers. Refrigerator rebates have been the most popular among customers, accounting for nearly 40 percent of all rebates.

Rebates also are available for certain high-efficiency central air conditioners, air-source heat pumps and window film.

“Up to 70 percent of home energy use may be attributed to heating, cooling and appliances,” said David Huff, Director of Customer Energy Efficiency and Smart Grid Strategy for LG&E and KU. “We want to help make energy-efficient options more affordable to our customers, which will therefore help them save energy and money over time.”

Qualifying ENERGY STAR appliances purchased since November 9, 2011 are eligible for rebates.

How to Apply

1. Purchase a qualifying

ENERGY STAR® refrigerator, clothes washer, freezer, dishwasher or heat pump water heater.

2. Start your application online at lge-ku.com/rebate or by calling 1-800-356-5467.

3. Receive a copy of your application by mail for your signature.

4. Sign and return your completed application and proof of purchase using the complimentary business reply envelope.

5. Receive a rebate check within six to eight weeks.

Looking for More Savings?

Apply for your rebate - and earn an additional $30 by scheduling an appointment to have LG&E and KU haul away and properly recycle your old, working full-size refrigerator or freezer.

Convenient weekday, evening and Saturday appliance pick-up appointments are available. Customers can submit a request online at lge-ku.com/recycle or by calling 1-800-356-5467.

The Home Energy Rebates Program and the Fridge and Freezer Recycling Program are part of the LG&E and KU expanded Energy Efficiency portfolio approved by the Kentucky Public Service Commission in November 2011.

The Energy Efficiency portfolio has the ability to reduce 500 megawatts of demand by 2018 if customers take advantage of these programs. To learn more, visit lge-ku.com/savingenergy.

Continuing Education for Opticians

The opticians at Maverick Optical, Irving and Joyce Peck, recently attended continuing education courses held at the Hyatt in Lexington, Kentucky during the Society of Dispensing Opticians of Kentucky's Fall Convention.

Classes ranged from implantable contact lenses, large diameter gas permeable contact lenses, and rigid gas permeable lens designs to Transitions "Vantage" polarized lenses, ocular emergencies, and Kentucky Law & Regulations.

Kentucky Law 326.040(4) changed this year for apprentice dispensing opticians, including Adam Bradley at Maverick Optical. Following a two year apprenticeship and passing national examinations with the American Board of Opticianry and the National Contact Lens Examiners, apprentice opticians have, in the past, taken a "hands-on" state exam testing knowledge of practical usage of equipment, frames, lenses and contact lenses.

This year the Kentucky State Board of Ophthalmic Dispensers will be using the NCSORB (National Commission of State Opticianry Regulatory Boards) as the official Practical Examination. The computer generated exam allows a ninety day tutorial period in which the applicant may familiarize themselves with the computer simulation equipment before taking the exam on-line at selected sites.

Exciting technology improvements include computer surfaced lenses and Transition "Vantage" polarized lenses which were released this past May. Transitions offer lenses that darken as it is exposed to the ultra violet rays of the sun, but also becomes more polarized as it darkens. The polarization helps to cut the glare.

The Transition "Vantage" lenses are available at Maverick Optical, located at 1937 Old Main Street in Old Washington. Maverick Optical is opened to serve you Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Each student who earned a score of 3 or better on an AP exam last May earned $100 for each qualifying test score from Advance KY.

“It Can Wait” Distracted Driving Program coming to BCBS!

The U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT), the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and more than 140 other organizations have come together to tackle a dangerous practice that puts millions of Americans at risk...texting while driving. Many organizations are urging Americans to make a life-long commitment to never text and drive again.

In the United States, someone is killed or injured once every five minutes on average in a crash that happens while a driver is texting and driving. Texting behind the wheel may only take a few moments, but it can have a lifetime of consequences. No text or email is worth the risk! Distracted driving continues to cost lives every single day. All of us must be part of the solution, recognizing that while mobile technologies offer enormous benefit, they create new challenges we must tackle together.

The Bracken County Chapter of Future Business Leaders of America has experienced an unbearable tragedy this year. We have lost an officer, Ryan Monahan, who was killed in a car accident on October 1, 2012.

While Ryan was not texting and driving, we feel that there is enough evidence that many teenagers do text and drive and we do not want to experience another tragedy in our community. By being proactive and getting the message out about the dangers of texting and driving, we hope to launch an important awareness campaign that will help make texting and driving as unacceptable as drinking and driving.

On Fri., Dec. 7, there will be a special program coming to Bracken County High School in which Bracken County and Augusta students will be informed on the dangers of distracted driving. We are planning many activities to get across our message "It Can Wait!" The community is invited to attend after school is released at 3 until 8:30 that night, to walk through the gymnasium viewing our different booths, talking to representatives from the KY State Police, KY Department of Highway Safety, and Local Sheriffs Department, as well as participating in the texting and driving simulators. We hope to see everyone there that day. Don't forget, "It Can Wait!"

Bracken Board of Education

The November 12, 2012, Bracken County Board of Education Meeting was called to order by Chairman Greg Jones.

FBLA and FFA Presentations

FBLA - Diane Poe presented her plans for the community service project that she will complete this year. Instead of "Shoot for a Cure" they will do a presentation, available to the entire Bracken County community as well as surrounding counties, which aims to limit Distracted Driving.

FFA - Adam Brothers, Tanner Moford, and Darren Weissman presented information about the local and national FFA chapters. This was part of "Know-vember", which seeks to educate the general public more about what FFA does for the community.

Farm Service Agency Conservation Loans Available

USDA Farm Service Agency (FSA) State Executive Director John W. McCauley, announced that funds are now available for Guaranteed Conservation Loans. Conservation loans allow farmers and ranchers to implement conservation practices on their land that will help protect natural resources.

"Guaranteed Conservation Loans are a useful alternative to help operators implement any Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) approved conservation practice including, but not limited to, waste management systems, conservation structures or water conservation measures," said McCauley.

Unlike other FSA guaranteed loan programs, Conservation Loans are not limited to family size farms. Operators who may not normally qualify for an FSA guaranteed farm operating or ownership loan could be eligible for a Guaranteed Conservation Loan.

According to McCauley, the Guaranteed Conservation Loan limit is $1,302,000 and interest rates and terms will vary. The maximum guarantee FSA can issue is 75 percent.

A streamlined application process is available for applicants with a strong financial position. The streamlined process reduces paperwork requirements and eliminates the requirement to provide a cash flow statement and supplementary documentation.

Interested applicants who do not already have a conservation plan approved by NRCS should work with their local NRCS staff to develop a conservation plan. As with other guarantees, lenders can reduce risk, increase liquidity and offer lower rates by selling the guaranteed portion in the secondary market.

For questions regarding Guaranteed Conservation Loans, contact your lender or your local FSA Office.

HMH completes Renovation and Expansion of Rehabilitation Services, Cafeteria and Materials Management

Harrison Memorial Hospital has completed the rehabilitation services department and cafeteria renovation project, which provides additional square footage, more equipment and more offerings for individuals in our service area.

"With all the varied services now offered in the rehabilitation services department we created a need for new and expanded space," says Sheila Currans, HMH Chief Executive Officer. "The addition of our orthopedic surgeon and sports medicine physician, Dr. James Pettey, has increased patient volume considerably over the last two years."

The rehabilitation services department offers physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, massage therapy and a wellness center. Cardiopulmonary rehabilitation is also located in this area.

The project began with a 2,450 square foot addition to the department. In addition to adding more square footage, the ceiling was extended 11 feet. "The additional open space will allow athletes room to kick and bat balls, and we'll also use the area for group classes, like the Silver Sneakers program," says Don Wynn, Director of Ancillary Services.

With the newly improved space, the department has more up-to-date private treatment rooms for patient comfort and privacy. In addition, the center has updated its equipment. The department added more elliptical machines, treadmills, bikes and strength training equipment. The equipment is used for both patient treatments and wellness center clients. Dedicated space for the cardiopulmonary rehabilitation department was also provided with this project.

The renovation within the wellness center creates a more social environment and is distinctly separate now from the patient treatment area. The wellness center is open to the public on a monthly fee basis of $20. There is a fitness trainer who customizes a program for each customer. The center also has a cardio-theatre, which allows clients to watch television on any of the plasma televisions while using the cardio equipment. The new layout includes a station in the center of the room so the fitness trainers can monitor clients. Hours for the center are 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Friday. To see the recently renovated department or join the wellness center, please contact the HMH Rehabilitation Services Department at 859-235-3553.

The HMH renovation project also included remodeling and expansion of the dining area located on the ground floor of the facility. The overall renovation of the cafeteria includes increased space for dining, new serving equipment and a three-sided salad bar for easier access. Visitors will enjoy more healthy food choices, as well as convenient "grab and go" sandwich options.

The project also includes renovation of the materials management department to make the area more efficient for storage and transport of medical supplies.

For more information about the completed HMH renovation project, please visit www.harrisonmem-hosp.com.

State lawmakers updated on the state of rural Kentucky

Rural Kentucky and Kentucky as a whole face challenges demographically, according to testimony given by Kentucky Education and Workforce Development Cabinet official Ron Crouch before the state legislative Subcommittee on Rural Issues yesterday.

Crouch said the state's population—like the rest of the nation's—is aging as the large Baby Boomer population ages. An aging population will cost more in terms of Medicare, Social Security, and will mean an aging workforce, he explained.

Still, there is good news, Crouch said, like the fact that most population growth in the U.S. is happening in the Southeast, including Kentucky. Eighty nine percent of domestic growth between 2000 and 2009 occurred in the Southeast, he said. More good news can be found in the fact that Kentucky has a strong interstate system and ample water supply.

"Water could be the new oil," Crouch explained.

He expressed concern about some areas of Kentucky's economy, specifically manufacturing, adding that he favors upgrading skills and reviving vocational-technical (vo-tech) programs among younger students, including those who live or are moving into rural areas.

"We are one of the very few states where some of our rural counties are gaining population," he said. Other states with rural population gains in the region, he said, are North Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee.

Counties who band together to recruit new jobs fare better than those that try a stand-alone approach, an economic development expert told the subcommittee. "A single county is no longer competitive," University of Kentucky Community and Economic Development Initiative Director Dr. Alison Davis testified.

A regional approach simply outperforms the single-county approach, she said assuredly, pointing to an interstate economic development initiative at work in Western Kentucky as proof. Several Kentucky counties in that region are working across state lines with Tennessee to recruit jobs that benefit counties in both states.

"They all sit around the table, and they all recognize the benefit that if a plant locates across the state line in Tennessee, it will have a tremendous impact on all the Kentucky counties and Tennessee counties," Davis said. "They recognize that... four counties here competing against one county next door—they're going to win."

Regional economic development has been difficult to achieve in some areas of Kentucky historically, subcommittee Co-Chair Rep. Mike Denham explained. However, regions that have been able to come together have met with tremendous success.

"The challenge for rural Kentucky is to be able to compete on a regional basis," he said.

Denham asked Davis if prescription drug reform in House Bill 1, passed by the 2012 General Assembly, is showing any sign of positively impacting the rural labor force by helping to alleviate substance abuse. It's too early to tell, she said. However, she added that there are some signs of progress, even in some drug-plagued areas of Eastern Kentucky.

Substance abuse is what Davis called an "insurmountable" reason why, she said, rural Kentucky is lagging behind economically. Other problems facing rural counties are unskilled workers, incentives not to work, and lack of a livable wage in some counties.

The Subcommittee on Rural Issues meets during the interim period between legislative sessions. Its mission is to review the effectiveness of state and federal rural development programs and consider policies related to rural infrastructure, health care, education, agriculture and transportation.

Adopt-A-Shelter-Dog

If you're looking for a puppy, we have two. Shown above is a Lab and Beagle mix and should make a very friendly medium sized family pet. We also have a beautiful little bird dog pup, perhaps also a mix, but appears to be a Shorthaired Pointer. With Christmas around the corner, pups are often in high demand.

Let me address dogs running at large. Often folks move to the country and they want their dogs to have total freedom. The problem with this is free roaming dogs are prone to get into trouble and become a real problem to neighbors. Dogs are only permitted by law to roam on their owners property.

This is often a greater problem in town where yards do not provide much room for animals to run and play. This is why walking your pet daily on a leash is very important. Dogs need daily exercise and this is part of being a responsible pet owner along with keeping your pet on your property.

Kentucky Farm Bureau ready to host 93rd Annual Meeting

McConnell, Hoover and Comer among featured guest speakers

More than 1,700 Kentucky Farm Bureau (KFB) members from across the state will gather for the organization's 93rd annual meeting December 5-8 at the Galt House Hotel in Louisville, Kentucky. Delegates from all of the state's 120 counties assemble for the four-day event to participate in committee meetings, business sessions, award presentations, officer elections and to adopt 2013 priority issues and policy revisions.

In addition to conducting organizational business, KFB hosts its annual meeting to reflect on both the successes and challenges experienced in Kentucky's agriculture industry over the previous year. The full agenda of delegate activities begins on Thursday, December 6, with 10 commodity and special interest conferences covering a range of topics from tobacco and livestock to farm labor and agricultural chemicals. A one-day tradeshow - featuring agriculture associations and businesses from around the country, the KFB County Activities of Excellence and student agricultural science displays - simultaneously occupies the exhibit halls. Guest comments from Commissioner of Agriculture James Comer and a keynote address from Craig Jagger, Principal and Founder of Legis Consulting, LLC, in Maryland, highlight the day's Commodity Luncheon.

In between those activities and numerous other meetings scheduled on Thursday, attendees will take away valuable knowledge from the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture's annual presentation on the state's agricultural economic outlook. This much-anticipated session begins at 10 a.m.

During the morning general session on Friday, December 7, KFB President Mark Haney will update attendees with the president's annual address. During this same session, U.S. Senator Mitch McConnell has been invited to speak to KFB's delegates about national issues impacting agriculture in Kentucky. Delegates will later discuss and adopt resolutions in the afternoon general session, then break into district caucuses to nominate the 2013 KFB Board of Directors.

Saturday, December 8, begins with the organization's annual Public Affairs Breakfast, highlighted by comments from Representative Jeff Hoover, Republican Floor Leader of the Kentucky House of Representatives. The morning event is followed by the annual meeting's final general session. Additionally, voting delegates will elect directors and officers, then conclude with the final discussion and adoption of resolutions.

In other convention activities, the state's "Farmer of the Year" and "Outstanding Young Farm Family" will be announced, awards will be given for county Farm Bureau achievements and top farm leaders will be recognized for distinguished service.

Kentucky Farm Bureau is a voluntary organization of farm families and their allies dedicated to serving as the voice of agriculture by identifying problems, developing solutions and taking actions which will improve net farm income, achieve better economic opportunities and enhance the quality of life for all. For more than three-quarters of a century, KFB has served as the "Voice of Kentucky Agriculture," representing the interests of agricultural producers and rural communities. With nearly 500,000 member families statewide, Kentucky Farm Bureau is the state's largest general farm organization.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY BRACKEN CIRCUIT COURT CIVIL ACTION NO. 12-CI-00009

THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON
VS.
SHEILA BAKER

DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF SALE

In obedience to a Default Judgment and Order of Sale entered in the above styled action, I will, as Master Commissioner of Bracken Circuit Court, proceed on

at 10:00 A.M.

AT THE FRONT DOOR OF THE BRACKEN COUNTY COURTHOUSE
(LOCUST STREET SIDE)
Brooksville, Bracken County, Kentucky

to sell the hereinafter described tract of real estate and any improvements thereon. This sale is to satisfy a Judgment and Order of Sale in favor of THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON against the Defendant herein in the principal amount of $74,101.88, plus accrued interest at the rate of 5.625% per annum from September 1, 2011 until paid, together with amounts for late fees and assessments, advancements for the protection of the property, taxes and insurance, escrow advances, reasonable attorney fees of $1,350.00, insurance premiums and court costs incurred herein.

The real estate to be sold is described as follows:
Address: 760 Courts Hill Road, Foster, Kentucky 41043
Parcel No. 13-18-05 & 06

Parcel I:

Being Tract #5 as shown on the Plat of the Krusling Land Division of record at Plat Cabinet 1, Slide 126, Bracken County Clerk's records. According to said Plat, this tract contains 31.1200 acres.

Parcel II:

Being Tract #6 as shown on the plat of the Krusling Land Division of record at Plat Cabinet 1, Slide 126, Bracken County Clerk's Records. According to said plat, this tract contains 1.80 acres.

SOURCE OF TITLE: Being the same property conveyed to Sheila Baker, married, who acquired title by virtue of a deed from Gary Wessling and Raeanna L. Wessling, husband and wife, dated March 31, 2004, filed May 14, 2004, recorded in Deed Book 173, Page 89, County Clerk's Office, Bracken County, Kentucky.

The property shall be sold to the highest and best bidder(s) and said purchaser shall be required to pay cash or the sum of ten percent (10%) of the bid price in cash deposit with the balance of the purchase price to be due and payable in cash or certified funds, within thirty (30) days from the date of sale. The purchaser shall be required to execute a bond, with good and sufficient surety, bearing interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date which is thirty (30) days following the date of sale, until paid, and payable to the Master Commissioner.

The purchaser shall have the privilege of paying all or any part of the purchase price or paying said bond before maturity by paying the balance of the principal together with all accrued interest thereon. If the total purchase price is not paid in cash, the required deposit shall be applied to any expenses incurred by a default of the purchaser. Provided, however, in the event a party of this action is the successful bidder at the sale of the property by the Master Commissioner, then the said party, upon payment of the court costs and sale expenses and any liens or judgments that have been given priority herein over the lien and judgment of said successful bidder/party, shall have its bid credited against its judgment herein.

If the purchaser(s) fails to comply with the terms of the sale then, in such event, the Master Commissioner shall immediately resell the property upon the same terms and conditions as set forth herein, excepting only any necessary changes in the time and date of sale. Possession of the property herein sold shall be given to the purchaser after payment in full of the purchase price and confirmation of the sale by the Bracken Circuit Court. Pursuant to the Judgment herein, the purchaser shall be required to assume and pay all ad valorem property taxes assessed against the property for 2012 and all subsequent years thereafter. The title interest of the parties to the lawsuit will be conveyed without warranty by the Master Commissioner to the purchaser and the purchaser shall receive a deed to property upon payment of the purchase price in full (and costs of sale, if applicable) and after confirmation of the sale by Bracken Circuit Court, subject to any equity of redemption if the property does not sell for two-thirds of its appraised value.

Kentucky FFA members eligible for Monty's Plant Food Company Scholarships

Monty's Plant Food Company, a Louisville, Kentucky-based manufacturer of plant and soil enhancement products for the agriculture, industry, is now accepting applications from Kentucky students for four, $1,000 college scholarships. The awards will be made in conjunction with the National FFA Organization to high school seniors who are members of FFA.

To be eligible students must also meet criteria including:

- Resides in Kentucky – also in Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Indiana, Ohio, Maryland, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina, Tennessee or Virginia.
- Live on a family farm
- Plan to pursue post-secondary education and study agronomy and crop science, sustainable agriculture, soil science or soil conservation
- Have a minimum high school GPA of 3.25
- Have participated in community service

A complete list of criteria is listed online at www.montysplantfood.com.

Scholarship applications are available online at www.ffa.org/scholarships.

The deadline to apply is February 15, 2013. The Monty's Plant Food Company scholarships will be awarded in May.

"FFA is a wonderful leadership program and we are proud to partner with such an influential organization to offer scholarships to young people in agriculture," said Dennis Stephens, president, Monty's Plant Food Company. "We value education and are pleased to help students pursue a college degree."

Each year, the National FFA Organization awards approximately $2 million in scholarships sponsored by businesses and individuals through the National FFA Foundation. Scholarships are awarded for a wide variety of experiences, career goals and higher education plans. Students can complete one application to be considered for all scholarships offered through the National FFA Organization.

Local input requested for USDA NRCS Farmbill Program

The USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) administers the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP), a federal program that provides technical and financial assistance to land users to address natural resource concerns. NRCS is asking for local input for the fiscal year 2013 program.

For fiscal year 2013 EQIP will be administered in Kentucky using four ranking areas across the state. The ranking areas consist of multiple counties that have been determined to have similar farming operations and resource concerns. Applicants within each ranking area compete only with others in that ranking area. NRCS has asked for local input from each of these areas.

A Local Working Group meeting consisting of Boyd, Bracken, Carter, Greenup, Harrison, Lewis, Mason, Pendleton and Robertson counties is scheduled for Tuesday, December 4th, 10 a.m. at the Mason County Extension Office. Recommendations from this group will be provided to NRCS to be used in developing the criteria used to award EQIP contracts during fiscal year 2013.

The Local Working Group was established by the 2002 Farm Bill as a group to provide recommendations to NRCS on local natural resource priorities and criteria for conservation activities and programs. Originally, this group was limited to governmental representatives, however, the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act of 2008 (2008 Farm Bill) has now made Local Working Group meetings public meetings and all interested persons are invited to attend.

This is your opportunity to have input regarding the ranking criteria for the Environmental Quality Incentives Program.

For additional information or if you have questions or require special accommodations please contact the Maysville NRCS Office at 606-759-5570.

Gaffe or Gumption? Sean Woods arrived at Rupp aggravated

One of the Unforgettables, Sean Woods’ tantrum-laced visit to Rupp Arena last week was, well, forgettable. Maybe.

A question lingers. Was Woods’ open mouth policy in Lexington gaffe or gumption? Says here the Devon Atkinson episode was gaffe. All else from Woods was gumption, and guts to speak his mind.

First, trying to show fans (and media) how Pitino-like he is – no back-down – Woods became too feisty on the sideline and gave in to anger. To put hands on a player in anger is taboo forever. To do it in public, witnessed by tweeters, YouTubers, gossiping grannys and Sportscenter scouts, is to walk to the edge of foolishness and jump. Given the venue and communication devices, a one-game suspension is the greatest escape since Steve McQueen motorcycled over the wire.

I believe Woods showed up aggravated. Out of sorts. Offended that current UK players “don’t get it” don’t appreciate that his place as an Unforgettable in the annals of Big Blue history is ho-hum to those playing in Jay Bilas’ new age.

“The vibe,” Woods said, among current Kentucky players, is disappointing.

That a Kentucky player had no clue about Christian Laetter’s place in UK basketball lore, was unfathomable and pushed Woods to the brink of talking about the elephant in the room. One-and-the-League.

Like this question: “These kids come to Kentucky and, because they’re only going to be here a semester or two, they aren’t required to learn a little history about the winningest program in the country?”

Willie Cauley-Stein’s ignorance about Laettner rankled Woods, but more, it is evidence John Calipari’s “players” are not required to know something/anything about basketball history here.

Woods: “There’s just a certain way and a certain look Kentucky basketball players should have. Not have such sense of entitlement. I think today it’s still an honor to wear that uniform.”

A Eureka Moment. One that begs for epilogue. Reflect hard truth about where the young man’s game as it applies to Kentucky basketball is today. To wit: “Hey man, you had your time. Now it’s our time and we’re not into all this UK history stuff, we’re headed to the league.”

By the time Woods and his team suited up to be fodder for the Wildcats, their coach had to be seething. Then, along came Atkinson who broke all player protocols by talking back to his coach in the heat of a moment instead of taking a seat and sticking a towel into his mouth.

When the game was in the books, tempers cooled and time came for coach spin, Woods retreated. Humbled by his gaffe (Atkinson), he showed some ball coach gumption. He tossed Calipari a bone, praising his success, then went away hoping Morehead State can keep a place in line for another UK check to cash into Morehead State Athletics account.

STOOPS WOULD BE A FIT

Since Mitch Barnhart probably couldn’t get Pat Fitzgerald away from Northwestern anyway, a candidate Kentucky’s director of athletics interviewed last week for the football job, looks to be a good one.

Lots to like about Mark Stoops beginning with his current job title, Defensive Coordinator at Florida State. Maybe Barnhart has come to grips with the Rule of Iron in the SEC: To win in this league, defense does it. Period.

√ Stoops. Before the 2012 season, for what it’s worth, television analyst Kirk Herbstreit put him among the top five defensive minds in college football today after Nick Saban, Gary Patterson, Bo Pelini and Will Muschamp.

√ Stoops is young at 45. √ One of six children, four of whom played then became football coaches, Stoops learned sibling survival skills early and grew a passion to compete.

√ He played in the Big Ten at Iowa, then coached on the Iowa staff.

√ Before this season, Stoops told a reporter, “Sure I have aspirations to be a head coach someday. I’m just always trying to improve myself and be the best coach I can be.”

The college coach carousel has barely started to turn, but it’s already gotten interesting. Stay tuned.

WORTH REPEATING DEPT.

Basketball Homecoming at Berea College.

The Mountaineers stormed back from 21 down to win, 77-67. Greatest part of the story, kids on Berea’s team have jobs on campus. They sleep in the same dorms as other students. Some of the guys work on Sunday at their campus jobs, but manage to get ready for class on Monday. Great victory for guys getting a great education and playing a game. Genuine student athletes. Go Mounties!” – Mark Boes, Berea, Ky.

UNEMPLOYED SYMPATHIES

Our Sympathies go out this week to the unemployed including:

- Derek Dooley had a $5 million buy out.
- Joker Phillips gets $2 million-plus for two years.
- Best (and most outrageous) for last, ex-ball coach at Auburn, Gene Chizik will receive $208,333 per month through the end of 2015.

Comment: Auburn University deserves Bobby Petrino.

PARTING SHOT

Philosophy of ball coaching?

“Effective communication is 25% what you know, 35% how you feel about it, and 110% effort to make what comes out of your mouth not sound like horse manure.”

And so it goes.

Augusta Academic Team to enjoy holiday break

Augusta’s fall academic season in the Limestone League came to a close on November 14 at the Limestone League Tournament held at Fleming County High School. While the quick recall team was eliminated in the first round to St. Pat, two individuals received awards for their effort from throughout the season. Sixth grader Stephen Cordle (right) was awarded first place in varsity quick recall, first place in Social Studies testing, and 4th place in Humanities testing. Meanwhile, Garrett Purdon (left), received 5th place for junior varsity quick recall. The team will now enjoy a break until Governor’s Cup competition begins in January.

Kentucky State Parks Foundation accepting donations as part of Giving Tuesday

Charities across the U.S. are taking part in “Giving Tuesday,” a day set aside during the holidays for non-profit organizations to accept donations.

The Kentucky State Park Foundation is a nonprofit organization established in 2007 to support the Kentucky State Parks. It raises money that is used for state park through grants for projects.

“This is just one way people who support the Kentucky State Parks can give to help continue our mission to promote the natural, historical and cultural resources of Kentucky’s State Parks and Historic Sites,” Parks Commissioner Elaine Walker said. “It’s a gift that helps to protect our parks for future generations.”

You can learn more about the Kentucky State Park Foundation, including how to make a donation, by visiting <http://kentuckystate-parksfoundation.org/>.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY BRACKEN CIRCUIT COURT CIVIL ACTION NO. 12-CI-00114

WELLS FARGO BANK, NA
VS.
CHARLES D. ROM

DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF SALE

In obedience to a Default Judgment and Order of Sale entered in the above styled action, I will, as Master Commissioner of Bracken Circuit Court, proceed on

at
10:00 A.M.

AT THE FRONT DOOR OF THE BRACKEN COUNTY COURTHOUSE
(LOCUST STREET SIDE)
Brooksville, Bracken County, Kentucky

to sell the hereinafter described tract of real estate and any improvements thereon. This sale is to satisfy a Judgment and Order of Sale in favor of WELLS FARGO BANK, NA against the Defendant herein in the principal sum of $122,389.86, plus accrued interest at the rate of 4.75% per annum from May 1, 2012 until paid, together with amounts for late fees and assessments, advancements for the protection of the property, taxes and insurance, escrow advances, reasonable attorney fees of $1,350.00, insurance premiums and court costs incurred herein.

The real estate to be sold is described as follows:

Address: 140 Don Galloway Drive, Brooksville, Kentucky 41004
Parcel No. CV-19

Situated in the County of Bracken, State of Kentucky: Being Lot No. 19 of the City View Subdivision, located on Don Galloway Drive, off Highway No. 10 in Brooksville, Bracken County, Kentucky and subject to the covenants and restrictions as filed and made a part of plat and map of said Subdivision which is duly recorded in Deed Book 90, Page 448, the Office of the Bracken County Clerk. See also Addenda to the plat of Subdivision recorded in Deed Book 91, Page 316 of the Office of the Clerk aforesaid.

Subject to all restrictions, conditions and covenants and to all legal highways and easements.

SOURCE OF TITLE: Being the same property conveyed to Charles Rom, single, who acquired title by virtue of a deed from Walter E. Brooks and Wanda C. Brooks, husband and wife, dated October 30, 2007, filed November 1, 2007, recorded in Deed Book 185, Page 106, County Clerk’s Office, Bracken County, Kentucky.

The property shall be sold to the highest and best bidder(s) and said purchaser shall be required to pay cash or the sum of ten percent (10%) of the bid price in cash deposit with the balance of the purchase price to be due and payable in cash or certified funds, within thirty (30) days from the date of sale. The purchaser shall be required to execute a bond, with good and sufficient surety, bearing interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date which is thirty (30) days following the date of sale, until paid, and payable to the Master Commissioner.

The purchaser shall have the privilege of paying all or any part of the purchase price or paying said bond before maturity by paying the balance of the principal together with all accrued interest thereon. If the total purchase price is not paid in cash, the required deposit shall be applied to any expenses incurred by a default of the purchaser. Provided, however, in the event a party of this action is the successful bidder at the sale of the property by the Master Commissioner, then the said party, upon payment of the court costs and sale expenses and any liens or judgments that have been given priority herein over the lien and judgment of said successful bidder/party, shall have its bid credited against its judgment herein.

If the purchaser(s) fails to comply with the terms of the sale then, in such event, the Master Commissioner shall immediately resell the property upon the same terms and conditions as set forth herein, excepting only any necessary changes in the time and date of sale. Possession of the property herein sold shall be given to the purchaser after payment in full of the purchase price and confirmation of the sale by the Bracken Circuit Court. Pursuant to the Judgment herein, the purchaser shall be required to assume and pay all ad valorem property taxes assessed against the property for 2012 and all subsequent years thereafter. The title interest of the parties to the lawsuit will be conveyed without warranty by the Master Commissioner to the purchaser and the purchaser shall receive a deed to property upon payment of the purchase price in full (and costs of sale, if applicable) and after confirmation of the sale by Bracken Circuit Court, subject to any equity of redemption if the property does not sell for two-thirds of its appraised value.

Cut your own Christmas Tree at a KY Proud Farm near you

Cutting your own Christmas tree brings to mind a Currier & Ives image of a 19th century family in a one-horse open sleigh towing a large pine through a snow-covered field. Kentuckians can experience the modern-day equivalent on farms throughout the Commonwealth.

"Christmas tree farms enable families to make holiday memories," Agriculture Commissioner James Comer said. "They also help Kentucky farmers make a living. I encourage all Kentucky families to buy a fresh Kentucky Proud tree this holiday season."

At Barker's Christmas Tree Farm near Lexington, owner Dale Barker will let customers borrow a small sled or wagon to tow the tree back to your car, as well as a bow saw for cutting.

"The majority of the industry in Kentucky is 'choose and cut,'" said Barker, president of the Kentucky Christmas Tree Association (KCTA). "It's an agritourism thing. The kids enjoy going out in the field."

To encourage their parents to return the next year, Barker's takes photos of each family and posts them the following year for pick-up.

"They have to come back the next year to get their picture," said Barker, who has about 600 photos from last year displayed in a small barn. "We've had people collect pictures for 10 years. You watch their kids grow up."

The KCTA website lists 18 member farms across the state.

"We have people from Owensboro to northern Kentucky that raise trees," Barker said. "Most people make wreaths and sell tree stands. A few do garland. Some people even get further into agritourism with hayrides."

Barker said no figures are available on how many Christmas trees Kentucky produces. He sells 500-600 per year, priced from $32 to $100, but 100 of those are Fraser firs he imports annually from North Carolina. "Our general trees, scotch or white pines, are $32 any size," Barker said.

Barker is concerned about the future of Kentucky's Christmas tree farms due to the advancing age of KCTA members. "I'm 53 and may be the youngest one in our association," Barker said. "There's room for others. The market is out there."

"But it's not something people jump into very often. It's a long-term proposition because it takes seven years before your first trees are ready for harvest."

Barker said last summer's drought was "rough" on KCTA members.

"If you didn't water small trees last summer, you lost them," he said. "Normally, you lose 10 to 15 percent of your trees, not 80 to 90 percent. Established trees in good health made it."

To find a Kentucky Christmas tree farm near you, including Barker's, visit www.kychristmastreefarms.com or www.ky-christmastreefarms.com. The Kentucky Department of Agriculture's Division of Agritourism website, www.KentuckyFarmsAreFun.com

Snow Queen to be crowned Thursday evening at BCHS

Each year, Bracken County High School elects a Snow Queen, carrying out a tradition started by Delores Carl many years ago and is still done in her honor today. This year's Snow Queen will be crowned on Thursday, November 29th at approximately 7:45 p.m. The Lady Bears Basketball Tip Off tournament begins that night at 5 p.m. The court for this year is: Senior - Savannah Simons, daughter of Dickie and Tracey Simons, Junior - Mary Kate Scolf, daughter of Sherry Scolf and Glen Norton; and Darrin and Julie Scolf, Sophomore - Cassidy Collins, daughter of Crystal and Donnie Collins, and Freshman - Gracie Kurtz, daughter of Melinda and Ricky Kurtz. The Snow Queen and her court will be invited to ride in the Christmas parade on December 1st.

Citizens Police Academy Boosters set up fund at Citizens Deposit

Recent graduates of the Citizens Police Academy have banded together to form a Boosters Club to help raise funds for upcoming projects. Donations may be made to the Citizens Police Booster Fund at the Citizens Deposit Bank in Brooksville. Currently they have received enough donations to send four youths on a Shop with a Cop Christmas Spree.

Due to regulations on state funds, and restrictions preventing the Sheriff's Department from soliciting donations, projects like the Citizens Police Academy, the DARE Program and Shop with a Cop come directly from the officers themselves.

The Citizens Police Academy Boosters hopes to raise funds through donations and bake sales to keep these important programs in our county. Anyone wishing to donate can stop in the Citizens Deposit Bank of Brooksville.
